課程簡介

As a continue course from English Reading Skills (I), English Reading Skills (II) will introduce texts from different fields. Topic sentences of main ideas, supporting sentences of details or facts to the main ideas, and concluding sentence of a report will again be emphasized when students are guided through the readings in the class.

The course is designed to reinforce students' effective reading, vocabulary-building and critical thinking skills to prepare them for more academic assignments. Students are encouraged to go through exercises which focus on various aspects of reading comprehension: extracting meaning from context, distinguishing facts from opinion, and making sensible inferences.
