課程簡介

This course will focus on forms/procedures of curriculum planning, specifically curriculum planning for TESOL. The purpose of this course is to prepare English teachers to apply their knowledge of the bases of curriculum to curriculum planning for TESOL. During the class, the students are expected to reflect on their language teaching/learning experiences and talk about them. It is hoped that after this course, students are more aware of the characteristics of their young learners and develop an approach that they think is most suitable for their learners.

課程大綱

The course is conducted with lecture and plenty of opportunity for students to express their experiences and opinions on language learning/teaching. Students will also be encouraged to practice what they have learnt from the class in a primary school or a cram school.
