Introduction
The 21st century globalization has seen an upsurge in the study of the Chinese language. This class is sustained by the following educational goals: 1) Improve learning quality, 2) Build cooperation capability, 3) Cultivate bilingual talent. Internationalization and Professionalism of Chinese Language Teaching: In order to meet the growing demands for quality, efficient and effective mastery of Chinese by non-native Chinese speakers, the deliver of TCSL has to be more flexible, student-centered, and consistent. The content needs to cover all aspects of communication such as linguistics, education, information technology, and mass communication. The delivery mode needs to accommodate different learner styles and education environments. With an integrated approach, international and professional TCSL teachers can help establish an extensive worldwide network of Mandarin Chinese communicators.
