Outline
This is to guide the students to apply their Japanese language skills in an intermediate business conversation. Students will be introduced business culture and etiquette and to learn about the human relationship and communication skills in doing business. Through the introduction of Japanese language (敬語?) and business culture, students will learn more about some etiquettes in business. Furthermore, students will practice Japanese business writing in the class through good business letter samples and writing skills, including the format of the letter. Based on the situational practice in the class, students will learn about the communication skills used in the business as a secretary.

Prerequisite
Japanese Secretarial Practice
