Introduction

This course aims to give students the opportunity to enhance significantly their lexical competence, grammatical competence and semantic competence in order to reach a level of proficiency in written French/German sufficient for the students to obtain, at the end of the academic year, the B1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Outline

Every week, the students will be asked to prepare a text of approximately 100 words on a topic decided in advance. The texts will be available in an electronic file format in order to allow all learners to participate actively and appropriately in their analysis and revision of them.

Students' preparation, as well as the accuracy of their texts, will be assessed every week.

The choice of the topics will help students deal with the major grammatical difficulties in a way that will appeal to their personal experience.

Prerequisite

Students should at least have a level in French/German corresponding to the A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.
